Jazz

DENNY ZEITLIN (Friday and Saturday) “Labyrinth” (Sunnyside), released this year, is the latest sparkling solo piano album by Mr. Zeitlin, a veteran of the format; it’s also a point of reference during the first, unaccompanied night of this engagement. The second night will feature Mr. Zeitlin’s trio, with Buster Williams and Matt Wilson, which has a rewarding recent album of its own: “In Concert” (Sunnyside), released in 2009. At 8 and 10 p.m., Kitano Hotel, 66 Park Avenue at 38th Street, (212) 885-7119, kitano.com; $25 cover, with a $15 minimum. (Chinen)

GONGS ON ABOUT TOWN: NIGHT LIFE

DENNY ZEITLIN

Nov. 18-19: Denny Zeitlin, a jazz pianist and a practicing psychiatrist, is experiencing a well-deserved late-career resurgence, mainly in the company of the two associates who join him here on the second night, the bassist Buster Williams and the drummer Matt Wilson. He performs solo on the first evening.
