

More Critical Acclaim for Denny Zeitlin's In The Moment

“The critic’s favorite since at least the early sixties, jazz pianist Zeitlin treats us to some of the most intelligent, insightful improvisation I’ve heard in a great while. Straight ahead, yet beautifully accessible, powerful, yet not heavy-handed...this time the cliché is accurate: This is a ‘must have.’” - VICTORY REVIEW

“[Jazz Pick] Second label outing from West Coast jazz pianist offers more swinging, tastefully sophisticated playing in a trio format and in duet with bassist David Friesen.” - BILLBOARD

“Zeitlin offers a swinging hour of piano jazz with a bright sound, the result of straight-ahead rhythms and full yet edgy harmonies. His style works on the edge of the chord changes, sometimes crossing all the way outside; his melodic developments are often strikingly flowing, as in the clever lines he sustains through most of ‘Monk-y Business;’ there’s weight in his romantic resetting of ‘Blues in the Night.’” - CHICAGO TRIBUNE

“[Jazz Pick] The always enchanting, richly romantic piano of Zeitlin in another warm and lovely set...” - CASH BOX
