

DENNY ZEITLIN & DAVID FRIESEN

Critical Acclaim

“ ‘Inspired’ is an overused term, but it’s the right one for what Zeitlin and Friesen accomplish here. Better playing and more delicate sonic textures (along with a corresponding boldness of attack) you are unlikely to find elsewhere.”

CADENCE

“They have garnered raves for their adventurous playing within the jazz mainstream. Their recording...supports that acclaim...the two illustrate just how bold and luscious the freedom can be when there are only two players.”

SEATTLE POST-INTELLIGENCER

“...Their relaxed mastery and the expressive depth of their rhythmic, thoughtful music also drew listeners into the spell their empathy created. Such rapport is a marvel to watch, as it produces a sound that’s accessible and pretty as well as spirited and sophisticated...improvisation is at the heart of their music...Friesen and Zeitlin are masters on that spontaneous tightrope.”
